Profile Summary

My expertise lies in the field of Sanskrit literature and education, where I have been an Assistant Professor for twelve years. As a research guide, I have mentored scholars and administered comprehensive programs for both undergraduate and postgraduate levels in Sanskrit General. My passion lies in the realms of linguistics and philosophical expositions within Sanskrit literature, where I have actively pursued research and contributed to scholarly discussions.

Along with my academic role, I possess administrative skills, which I have applied to efficiently manage academic and administrative activities within my department and university. My dedication and expertise are recognized beyond my institution, as I serve as a subject expert on the Department Research Committee at Maharaja's College, Ernakulam. Also, I have served as a member of the selection committee of the Kerala Public Service Commission since 2015.

I am a dedicated educator, passionate researcher, and capable administrator, all of which enable me to make significant contributions to the world of Sanskrit literature and academia.
